- 15.1 Any money received by Singer Capital Markets in respect of your Account with

Singer Capital Markets shall be treated as "Client Money" in accordance with the applicable FCA's Client Money Rules except where you transfer full ownership of money to Singer Capital Markets for, amongst other things, the purpose of security or otherwise covering present or future, actual or contingent or prospective obligations, in which circumstances such money will not be regarded as Client Money.

- 15.2 In relation to Client Money unless you notify us in writing or otherwise, we may hold Client Money in a Client bank account opened with either an approved bank in the United Kingdom or in any other country. Your Client Money may therefore be held outside the United Kingdom and in such circumstances the legal and regulatory regime applying to the approved bank with which you bank account is opened will be different from that of the United Kingdom.
- 15.3 In respect of clause 15.2 we will request that the applicable bank provide the acknowledgement required by FCA's Rules provided that in the case of a Client bank account in the United Kingdom, if the bank does not provide such acknowledgement within 20 business days after we have dispatched the notice, we will (a) notify you of such fact and (b) withdraw all money standing to the credit of the account and deposit it in a Client bank account with another bank as soon as possible.
- 15.4 Unless specifically agreed to the contrary we will not pay you interest on Client Money or any other unencumbered funds.
- 15.5 Unless you notify us in writing or otherwise, we may allow another person, such as an exchange, a clearing house or an intermediate broker, to hold or control Client Money where we transfer the Client Money (a) for the purposes of a transaction for you through or with that person; or (b) to meet your obligations to provide collateral for a Transaction.
- 15.6 In the event that Client Money is transferred to a third-party, we must obtain your consent at the time of the transfer (which may be taken as standing consent for future orders). We will not transfer Client Money to third-parties unless such firms which are the recipients of the transferred Client Money hold those sums under the Client Money rules (specifically, the FCA's CASS rules), or such recipients in our reasonable opinion, as determined by our due skill, care and diligence in assessing such third party will apply adequate measures to protect the sums being transferred. We will provide you, within (7) seven days of transfer, certain post transfer notifications, including how the funds will be held by the transferee firm; the relevant applicable compensation scheme, if any, and the option to have such funds returned to you. No explicit consent is required for transfers of de-minimus amounts (£25 for retail and £100 for professional), however, you will still receive the post transfer notification.

- 15.7 We do not currently enter into 'Title Transfer Collateral Arrangements' (TTCA) with you. To the extent we were to enter into such arrangement with you in the future, we would require you to enter into a written TTCA with us.
- 15.8 We do not currently enter into 'Right to Use' arrangements with any of our clients. In the event that we were to enter into such arrangement in the future, we would consider whether such arrangement was in the client's best interests, this consideration is uniform for both retail and professional clients.
- 15.9 To the extent applicable, and with regard to delivery versus payment transactions through a commercial settlement system, you will agree with us in writing to our holding of your assets/monies within the 24 hour DVP window. With respect to Client's Purchase - the DVP window starts from the date of the client's fulfilment of its payment obligation to the firm and closes at the earlier of the settlement date or the third business day following the date the client fulfils its payment obligation. Where delivery of the asset to the client does not occur because the transaction has not yet settled, the firm will need to treat the money as client money until such time as delivery to the client occurs. With respect to Client's sale - the DVP window starts from the date the client fulfils its delivery obligation to the firm and closes the earlier of the settlement date or the third business day following the date the client fulfils its delivery obligation. Where payment to the client has not occurred because the transaction has not yet settled, the firm will need to treat the custody asset in accordance with the custody rules until such time as the payment to the client occurs. If the firm is still holding client money / assets after the DVP window closes, it must segregate the money / assets promptly in comply with CASS rules.
- 15.10 You consent to us releasing any Client Money balances, for or on your behalf, from client bank accounts and for us to treat as Client Money any unclaimed Client Money balance where:
- (a) we have determined that there has been no movement on your balance for a period of six years (notwithstanding any payments or receipts of charges, interest or similar items); and
 - (b) we have attempted to communicate to you on at least three occasions after reasonably determining contact information, and we have written to you at your last known address informing you of our intention of no longer treating that balance as Client Money, giving you 28 days to make a claim, provided we:
 - (i) shall make and retain records of all balances released from your Client bank accounts; and
 - (ii) undertake to make good any valid claims against any released balances.
- (c) The above is subject to a de Minimis threshold of £25 for retail clients and £100 for other clients in relation to client money. There is no de Minimis threshold for client assets for unclaimed money or assets that are paid away to charity. We unconditionally undertake to make good any valid claim for unclaimed money or assets paid away to charity, and will maintain all records of such divestments to charity of such money or assets.

SCHEDULE 1 - AGENCY SCHEDULE

1. Application and Scope

- 1.1 Scope of these terms: These terms set out the basis on which we will provide the services referred to in the Agreement to you where you are acting as agent for a third party ("Counterparty") which is a Counterparty agreed to in writing by us from time to time on behalf of which you are to enter as agent into Transactions with us; and where a Counterparty does not constitute a single legal person, means the trustees, individuals or other persons who are the primary representatives of the organisation, trust or fund on whose behalf they are dealing. Where you are acting for your own account the supplemental terms set out in this Schedule shall not apply.
- 1.2 Notification: You will notify us before placing any Order on behalf of a Counterparty that you are acting as agent for that Counterparty and inform us of the identity, address and any other details which we require in respect of each Counterparty to enable us to form a credit and counterparty risk assessment in respect of any Transaction.
- 1.3 Instructions: You may give us oral and written instructions and Orders. We shall not accept nor act upon any instructions received by anyone other than persons whom we reasonably believe to be duly authorised by you ("Authorised Persons"). If we refuse to act on any instruction or Order, we shall notify you as soon as practicable of our refusal. You agree not to give us instructions on behalf of Counterparties which are on the US Department of Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) list of specially designated nationals and blocked persons and that instructions that you give to us will not, when executed, cause us to breach the OFAC sanctions programme.
- 1.4 Capacity: Whenever you place business with us on behalf of your Clients, you do so as agent on their behalf. You represent to us that you have the authority to bind such Clients when you give us instructions. In addition, you will be jointly and severally liable with the relevant Client until you inform us of their identity. When you have informed us of their identity, you will act reasonably to cooperate with us if we need to take any steps to enforce our rights against them. However, we will treat only you, and not any of your Clients, as our client for regulatory purposes.
- 1.5 Nature of Counterparties: You represent, warrant and undertake on your own behalf and as agent for the Counterparties that no Counterparty will be a state or a separate entity within the meaning of the State Immunity Act 1978 and that a Counterparty shall, at the time an instruction is given in respect of it, have the characteristics and conform to any criteria agreed between us from time to time.
- 1.6 Counterparty accounts: We shall, in respect of each Counterparty, establish and maintain one or more separate sub-accounts (each a "Counterparty Account").

You undertake, as agent for the relevant Counterparty and on your own behalf, in respect of each instruction given, to specify within two hours of giving an instruction (or such other time as we may reasonably specify) the Counterparty Account to which the relevant instruction relates. Until you specify a specific Counterparty Account you shall be personally liable, as principal, in respect of the relevant Transaction. You further undertake, as agent for each Counterparty and on your own behalf, to notify us immediately if any two or more Counterparty Accounts relate to the same Counterparty. For the avoidance of doubt the assets of a Counterparty Account belong exclusively to that Counterparty Account and shall not be used to discharge directly or indirectly the liabilities of, or claims against, any other person or body, including you, or any other Counterparty Account, and shall not be available for any such purpose.

- 1.7 Separate administration: We shall, subject to these terms, administer Counterparty Accounts which we reasonably believe relate to different Counterparties separately. We shall not exercise any power to consolidate accounts or set off amounts owing between Counterparty Accounts relating to different Counterparties.
- 1.8 Documentation: You agree to forward to a Counterparty any documentation in relation to such Counterparty that we are required to provide under the FCA Rules and which we make available to you for that purpose.

2. Advice

- 2.1 Limitations: You, as agent for the Counterparties and on your own behalf, retain full responsibility for making all investment decisions with respect to any Counterparty. We will not be responsible for judging the merits or suitability of any Transaction to be entered into on behalf of a Counterparty. Unless otherwise required under Applicable Regulations, we shall have no responsibility for your or any Counterparty's compliance with any laws or Rules governing or affecting your conduct or that of any Counterparty, or for your or any Counterparty's compliance with any laws or rules governing or affecting Transactions.

3. Representations, Warranties and Covenants

- 3.1 Representations and warranties: As agent for each Counterparty and on your own behalf, you represent and warrant to us as of the date these terms come into effect and as of the date of each Transaction that:-

 - (b) the person(s) entering into these terms, the Agreement and each Transaction have been duly authorised to do so;

- (d) no Event of Default or Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing with respect to you or the Counterparty;
- (e) each of you and the Counterparty is permitted under its constitution and any applicable law or regulation and is financially able to sustain any loss which may result from Transactions, and that entering into Transactions is a suitable investment vehicle for the Counterparty;
- (f) the relevant Counterparty owns, with full title guarantee, all investments, or collateral deposited with, transferred to us or charged in our favour, by you acting as agent for the Counterparty and such investments, or collateral are free from any prior mortgage, charge, lien or other encumbrance whatsoever and neither you acting as agent for the relevant Counterparty, nor the Counterparty itself, will further pledge or charge such investments, or collateral or grant any lien over them while it is pledged or charged to us except with our prior written consent; and any information which you provide or have provided to us in respect of your or the Counterparty's financial position, domicile, or other matters is accurate and not misleading in any material respect.

3.2 Covenants: You, as agent for each Counterparty and on your own behalf, covenant to us that you will:

- (a) ensure at all times that you and the Counterparty obtain and comply with the terms of and do all that is necessary to maintain in full force and effect all authority, powers, consents, licences and authorisations referred to above;
- (b) promptly notify us of the occurrence of any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to yourself or the Counterparty.
- (c) provide to us on request such information regarding your and the Counterparty's financial or business affairs as we may reasonably require to evidence the authority, powers, consents, licenses and authorisations referred to above or to comply with any Applicable Regulations;
- (d) provide to us on request copies of the relevant sections of the Counterparty's constitutive documents relating to its capacity to enter into Transactions and appoint an agent to act on its behalf and that any such extract will, to the best of your knowledge, be true and accurate in all material respects and you will not omit or withhold any information which would render the information so supplied to be false or inaccurate in any material respect; and

- 3.3 either: (i) execute as agent for the Counterparty where you are duly authorised to do so, or, in each other case: (ii) procure that the Counterparty executes, as applicable, on our request all such transfers, powers of attorney and other documents as we may require to vest any assets or otherwise grant any security interest.

4. Anti-Money Laundering

- 4.1 Anti-money laundering: You represent, warrant and undertake that you are now and will be at all material times in the future in compliance with all Applicable Regulations concerning money-laundering. We are required to follow the Applicable Regulations concerning money-laundering relating to the identification of the Counterparty unless either of the following sub-terms apply, and if satisfactory evidence of identity has not been obtained by us within a reasonable time period, we reserve the right to cease to deal with you.
- 4.2 If you are a regulated credit or financial institution in the UK or EU, we shall deal with you on the understanding that you are complying with EU regulations concerning money-laundering and that evidence of the identification of any Counterparty will have been obtained and recorded under procedures maintained by you.
- 4.3 If you are a regulated credit or financial institution based or incorporated in Jersey, Guernsey, the Isle of Man or a non-EU country which is a member of the Financial Action Task Force, and you are or will be dealing as agent on behalf of any Counterparty, we require your written assurance that evidence of the identification of any Counterparty for whom you act as agent will have been obtained and recorded under procedures maintained by you in accordance with local regulations concerning money-laundering. If you are unable to provide us with such written assurance, we reserve the right to cease to deal with you.

In other circumstances, we are required to follow the Money Laundering requirements relating to the identification of our customers, or the underlying principal(s) where a customer acts as agent. If satisfactory evidence of identity has not been obtained by us within a reasonable time period, we reserve the right to cease to deal with you.

5. Discharge

- 5.1 Discharge: Where under any term any payment or other performance (including the delivery of Securities or any other property) is due from us, it shall be a discharge of our obligation to make such payment or performance to you notwithstanding that any Counterparty shall be interested (whether beneficially or otherwise) in such payment or performance.

6. Netting

- 6.1 Events of Default: References to "Party" in the netting provisions of the Agreement shall be deemed to be references to you acting on your own behalf and to each Counterparty. If any Event of Default occurs in respect of you or a Counterparty we shall be entitled to exercise our rights under the netting provisions of this Agreement in accordance with the following sentences of this term and the expression "Defaulting Party" shall be construed accordingly. In respect of an Event of Default which occurs in respect of you (as opposed to any Counterparty), our rights under the netting provisions of the Agreement shall apply separately in respect of each Counterparty Account. If an Event of Default occurs in respect of a Counterparty, our rights under the netting provisions of the Agreement shall be limited to the relevant Counterparty Account(s).

Administration

All instructions regarding the administration of your account(s) held with Singer Capital Markets, or concerning your personal details such as change of name, address or any other material changes should be made in writing to Singer Capital Markets. Singer Capital Markets does not accept instructions from third parties unless a valid power of attorney has been established for this purpose. We shall communicate with you regarding your account and your investments held with us (including communications regarding corporate events where applicable) by email to the email address provided to us on your account application form. Should you wish for us to communicate with you in another format, please send your request in writing to Singer Capital Markets Securities Limited, One Bartholomew Lane, London EC2N 2AX marked for the attention of the Head of Operations. Where we ask you to respond to a communication within a certain time frame we shall not be responsible for the consequences of our acts or omissions that result from your failure to respond in a timely manner.

Safekeeping and registration

Legal title to safe custody investments in registered form will normally be registered or recorded in your name or that of an appropriate nominee in accordance with the rules of the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA"). Should you instruct us to register title to your safe custody assets in the name of a person nominated by you, this will be at your own risk.

We may register legal title to your safe custody investments in the name of a custodian where due to the nature of the applicable law or market practice in certain jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom, we believe that either:

- it is in your best interests for your safe custody investments to be registered or recorded in the name of a custodian; or
- it is not feasible to do otherwise because of the nature of the applicable law or market practice.

In such cases, your investments may be registered in the name of the custodian and the safe custody investments may not be segregated and separately identifiable from the designated investments of the custodian.

We may hold physical possession of safe custody investments in accordance with your specific written instructions. Please note that the consequences of so holding will, unless we have otherwise agreed, be at your own risk.

Pooling

Singer Capital Markets may pool your safe custody investments with those of one or more of its other customers. This means that:

- individual entitlements may not be identifiable by separate certificates, either physical documents or equivalent electronic records; and
- in the event of Singer Capital Markets' default and any irreconcilable shortfall, you may not receive your full entitlement and may be required to share in that shortfall pro-rata.

Use of overseas custodians

The Custodian may, where it considers it appropriate, arrange for your safe custody investments to be held overseas, which may also be outside the EEA. There may be different settlement, legal and regulatory requirements in overseas jurisdictions from those applying in the UK together with different practices for the separate identification of your investments.

Corporate events

Singer Capital Markets will use reasonable efforts to claim dividends and interest payments on your safe custody investments but will not have any duty to take steps to recover any amounts due in respect of defaults of the issuer or its registrar, paying agent or other agent.

In the event that your investments are subject to any corporate actions including but not limited to rights issues, conversion or subscription rights, takeovers or other offers or capital changes and the exercise of voting rights, we shall notify you promptly by email (if the deadline permits) to your specified email address. We shall act in accordance with your instructions if you have made these known to us in writing (by email to ops@singercm.com and within the specified time period). Under no circumstances shall we advise you on what action to take.

Where corporate events (such as partial redemptions) affect some but not all of safe custody investments held in a pooled account, we shall allocate the investments so affected to particular customers in such fair and equitable manner as it considers appropriate

Shareholders' annual general meeting

Singer Capital Markets shall not notify you of annual or extraordinary general meetings or special announcements, nor send you copies of annual or interim reports and accounts. Unless otherwise specifically agreed you will not be entitled to vote at the Shareholders' annual general meeting.

Statements and Valuations

Singer Capital Markets will send you quarterly statements detailing the investments and any cash balances held by us for your account.

We will provide you with an annual valuation statement detailing the value and composition of the portfolio at the start of the period to which it relates, as well as the value at the end of the period it covers. This will detail the number, description and value of each designated investment held; the amount of cash held; and the total value of the portfolio. Valuations will be prepared on the basis of the middle market prices prevailing at the relevant dates. If any designated investments are shown in a currency other than the usual one used for valuation of the portfolio, the relevant currency exchange rates must be shown.

Where you are ordinarily resident outside the United Kingdom, we may, at your request, arrange for custody statements to be retained by us.

General lien and set-off

We are entitled to hold a general lien or right of set off over your safe custody investments, in so far as there remains any outstanding amounts due from you to us or where this is otherwise required to facilitate the settlement of your trades or is required as a condition for accessing an overseas jurisdiction. We will exercise this right in such manner as we may determine.

Warranty

You jointly and severally warrant to us that all cash, securities or other assets of any nature transferred to or held by Singer Capital Markets or its nominee(s) as custodian for your account are your sole and beneficial property or are transferred to or held by Singer Capital Markets or its nominee(s) with the legal and beneficial owner's unconditional consent and free of such owner's interest and, in any event, will be transferred to or held by Singer Capital Markets or its nominee(s) free and clear of any lien, charge or other encumbrance and undertake that you will not charge, assign or otherwise dispose of or create any interest in them.

You confirm that in the event of Singer Capital Markets not receiving either cash or securities when due, in respect of any transaction which is due to be settled or executed, or in the event of you or us not taking all such steps as may be necessary to secure the due and prompt execution and settlement of any such transaction, we may cancel, close out, terminate or reverse all or any contracts and sell, charge or otherwise dispose of any investment held for you, at whatever price and in whatever manner we see fit in our absolute discretion (without being responsible for any loss or diminution in price or any resultant tax consequences) and may enter into any other transaction or do, or not do, anything (including the application of client money held by us) which would or could have the effect of reducing or eliminating any liability under any transaction, position or commitment undertaken for you.
